

INDUSTRY VETERAN OMAR MCINTOSH JOINS SMOOT CONSTRUCTION TO LEAD D.C. AREA OPERATIONS

D.C. industry leader brings 20 years of experience to Smoot Construction's D.C. location

Washington, D.C. – Smoot Construction is pleased to announce the hiring of Omar McIntosh as senior vice president and regional executive. McIntosh brings 20 years of diverse construction experience in the D.C. marketplace to the position. He leads the company's DC operations and manages a team of construction professionals that are responsible for a diverse portfolio of work throughout the Washington Metropolitan Area.

“I'm thrilled to join an industry leader. Smoot Construction is in its third generation of family leadership, which demonstrates stability and a commitment to the industry. We have pride in our work and there is a legacy to uphold, and I look forward to contributing to the company's continued success,” said McIntosh.

McIntosh's prior experience includes projects for Rolls-Royce Corporation, Smithsonian Institution, the U.S. Department of Justice, and a host of local property owners and developers.

McIntosh joins the company as Smoot Construction Company embarks upon celebrating 50 years of building excellence in the greater Washington, DC region. Over the past seven decades, Smoot Construction has transformed from a trade subcontractor into one of the region's leading construction companies.
